TIPS&TRICKS

How to organise your wardrobe

1. Schedule time to go through your wardrobe twice a year, for example Spring and autumn.
2. Empty your wardrobe and take inventory.
3. Put each piece on one of the four de-cluttering piles: Keep, Bin, Sell, Donate.
4. Once finished with this task, take action with each pile.
5. Turn your wardrobe makeover into a fun event by organising a swap party.
6. Sort your clothes by pants, jackets, shirts, dresses, skirts etc. find a dedicated space for them in your wardrobe. Group long- and short-sleeve T-shirts, jumpers, skirts, and dresses.
7. You can additionally sort your wardrobe by colours. This not only looks great, but also gives you an instant overview of the colours you prefer.
8. For smaller items, use wardrobe organisation systems.
9. Display your favourite jewellery on hooks or pin boards and make them a feature in your bedroom.
